Week Report 8

What is VIM?

A command-line text editor

What is Nano?

Also a command-line text editor

Useful Commands

- Start vim
  - vim
- Quit vim
  - ESC + :q
- Save vim file
  - ESC + :w
- Search for word inside vim
  - /
- Delete text in vim
  - delete current word: dw
  - undo: u
  - delete line under the cursor: dd
  - delete until the word given: d + /

Different Modes

- Insert mode: write text
  - use arrow keys to move around
  - use Enter key to move to the next line
  - use Backspace key to delete text
- Normal mode: manipulate text
- Command mode: enter vim commands
- Visual mode: navigation and manipulation of text selections
- Select mode: same use as "visual mode"
- Ex-mode: "command mode" but better for batch processing